2. Hair nets are an awesome idea when completing a bun look. This is one of the most highly recommended hair accessories that we can offer to you. You can find these at Dance Street as well.

3. If you are a first time dance parent, and are nervous to complete stage hair and make-up, do a trial run! We have found that on performance day, a confident parent helps a nervous dancer feel that much better.

4. If you are working with an unruly dancer who just does not want to sit still- then find a friend to do their hair! Sometimes, we find that when someone other than mom does stage hair and make-up, the dancer is more likely to still still!

5. YouTube is your best friend. For the most part- you can find tutorials on any of the hair styles or stage makeup.

6. Eyelashes:

- If your dancer requires eyelashes, it will be indicated on the hair and make-up by class sheet.
- For best results, do not use single eyelashes but use a row. The row of eyelashes is a quicker application and removal. Also, lots of them are multi-use. You can find these at places such as Walmart, Shoppers or even online. Once again, YouTube is your best friend.
